SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—

We, your Sunday School Board, submit the following report:

We are glad to note a healthy increase in all Sunday School work, particular interest being taken in Missions.

We had in operation the past year 356 Sunday Schools with 2,338 officers and teachers, 23,017 Sunday School scholars.

Collected for—

Sunday Schools .....	$6,649 93
Missions .....	1,362 87
Children's Day .....	387 08
Other Objects .....	945 23

Total.....$9,129 46

The foregoing facts and figures will show that the Little Rock Conference is tremendously alive to this great work. Recognizing the fact that the Sunday School is the foundation work of our church, and believing the time has come for a more aggressive movement (being encouraged by past experience), we therefore propose holding three Sunday School Institutes during the month of April, at the following places: Little Rock, Hope and Fordyce of two days duration each. We believe the time has come when we should have a Joint Conference Sunday School Secretary in the field, and hope to have the plan consummated and the man in the field some time during the present Conference year.

As it is impossible to reach the Sunday Schools without having the address of Superintendents, we again urge the Presiding Elders to furnish our Chairman the proper information.

We are glad to know that so many of our schools have availed themselves of the Bible Teachers' Study Circles, and hope to see the day when there shall be one in every Sunday School.

We call especial attention to the little book "Bible Drills" by Dr. Hamill which can be had by Sunday Schools, 25 copies at 5 cents each, post paid, which we are sure will be both interesting and profitable.

We are glad to know that some time during the month of June there is to be held for one week a State Teachers' Training School in the city of Little Rock, and that our Dr. Hamill is to be the chief instructor, to be assisted by a select body of teachers.

Resolved, That we will join the Arkansas and White River Conferences in fixing Christmas day or the Sabbath in the Christmas as orphanage day, and beg our Sunday Schools and congregations to make a contribution at that time to the building fund.

T. O. RORIE,

H. D. McKINNON.

Respectfully submitted,

H. M. BRUCE, Chairman.

J. W. WHITE, Secretary.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We, your committee on District Conference Journals, beg leave to report as follows: The records of all the Districts were before us, and were carefully examined. In the main they are well and correctly kept, so that we had but few criticisms to make. We note that the Record of the Monticello District has no marginal index, is marred by ink blots on several of its pages, and that it lacks form in the matter of paragraphing.

The records for the Camden and Little Rock Districts, seem to have been recorded very hastily, in rather ineligible handwriting, and without proper attention to arrangement and paragraphing. In other respects they are well kept.

The Journals of the Prescott, Texarkana and the Arkadelphia Districts are well and correctly kept.

The Journal of the Pine Bluff District has an imperfect Official Roll, attention was not given to paragraphing, and it has no marginal index.

Submitted,

GEO. N. CANNON,
Chairman Committee.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT.

To the Bishop and members of the Little Rock Conference,

Dear Brethren:—

On account of the keen interest we feel in the young of the Methodist church and its constituency, your Epworth League Board wishes to call attention to and emphasize some things connected with its work.

The reports seem to indicate a smaller number of Chapters than were reported a year ago. While this is true there is an encouraging increase in point of efficiency.

The Epworth Era has grown to be one of the best and greatest young people's paper. Financially it is self sustaining. The plan is soon to publish every number equal to the Monthly Magazine Number.

The Era is fundamental to the best welfare of the life of the League Chapter. The League cannot live without the Era.

The League culture courses including the Junior, Intermediate, and Senior reading courses substitute studies, and also the Bible and Missionary Studies. Our young people are reading, but what? Why not influence them to read the best literature? We call special attention to the plan for Bible and Missionary study classes prepared by the editor. They are highly practical, and can be made pre-eminently helpful to the moral and intellectual lives of the future church. We recommend an honest attempt to induce our young people to engage in these studies.

We recommend the District organization as fundamental to Epworth League success.

We call attention to the Ten Cent Assessment. Let the pastors see to it that this is promptly paid.

We call attention also to the Seventh International Epworth League Conference to be held in Denver next summer. There will be special inducements offered for a large attendance and a great meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. WORKMAN, President,
T. O. OWEN, Secretary.

BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

At the last session of this Annual Conference it was voted unanimously:

1. That our Pastors and Superintendents make special efforts to introduce the Bible into the Sunday Schools.

2. That the Pastors preach on the importance of the young and old studying the Bible, and that they endeavor to form Bible reading Circles in their congregations.

3. That every Pastor in the Conference give his congregation an opportunity to contribute to the American Bible Society once each year.

It appears from the reports made that an increased number of Pastors gave opportunity to their congregations to contribute to the American Bible Society. We are sorry to say that a few did not. Just how many preached on the importance of the study of the Bible we cannot say. Nor can we estimate into how many Sunday Schools the Bible was introduced. The collections for this cause amount to $370.00 which is an increase over last year.

We call to the notice of our Pastors the action of last year and urge the importance of conforming thereto.

We again call attention to the fact that the Bible Society is not rich but depends largely upon the churches for its support.

It is a charitable institution, whose sole object is to encourage a wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures without note or comment.

It invites the contributions and co-operation of all who accept the Bible as their rule of life, and believe that every human being is entitled to know what it teaches concerning truth and duty.

The Society is thoroughly unsectarian. Its entire work is essentially gratuitous and not remunerative. It has made grants to Mission Churches, Sabbath Schools, Hospitals, and Asylums, in all parts of the world. It has supplied hundreds of thousands of volumes to immigrants as they reached our shores, and hundreds of thousands more to the freedmen, and it has paid special attention to the wants of the North American Indians. It has also prepared at great expense the entire Bible for the Blind.

The Society would gladly put the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments into the hands of hundreds of millions of pagan, Mohammedan, Jewish and Christian people in all lands where, for one reason or another, the Bible is an unknown book, and the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ is yet to be told in its blessed adaptation to the wants and woes of humanity. In this work of good-will and philanthropy, standing as the representative of American Christianity, it encounters many obstacles, illiteracy, poverty, prejudice, enmity, fanaticism, priestcraft. The liberal gifts of Christian men can supply the destitution due to poverty; illiteracy ceases to be formidable when curiosity to know the contents of the Bible entices men to learn the alphabet in order that they may read with their own eyes the wonderful things which it conceals; inconsiderate prejudices often melt away when observation and reflection show how unfounded they are; but enmity to the truth is deeply rooted in human nature, and when that truth threatens to take away men's gains, to overturn institutions, to break up ecclesiastical power, the conflict is bitter and the immediate outcome uncertain. The shrine makers at Ephesus were quick to see that the craft by which they made their wealth was imperiled when the faith of the multitude in the great goddess Diana was shaken by Paul's simple statement that "they be no gods which are made with hands;" and there can be no doubt that most of the direct opposition which the distribution of the Scriptures encounters in pagan, Mohammedan, and nominally Christian lands is due to fear that the doctrines taught in the Bible will cause the overthrow of men who exercise dominion over ignorant adherents. But thank God one by one the barriers are breaking down; the valleys are exalted, the mountains and hills are made low; isolated nations give up their seclusion and interchange treaties with the civilized world and intricate languages are subjugated and made vehicles of the truth revealed from heaven.

While this Society is undenominational, its interdenominational character has been amply recognized by ecclesiastical bodies in their repeated action recommending the Society to the support of their respective churches. For these eighty years it has stood as the symbol of unity for the Protestant denominations.

The word of God addresses itself to that in man which makes him akin to other men. Whether he be a native of the Orient or of the Occident, whether his brief life is lived in the earliest Christian century or the latest, this word speaks to his inmost soul.

It is a history of Him who died upon Calvary for the redemption of a lost world and all the world should have an opportunity to read it.

Like the rainbow hung in the heaven, its promises assure that God is mindful of his children.

Darkness and death are horrific to those who see no shore across the last river, but the Bible is a Mariner's Compass pointing as surely to a glorious heaven as the needle points to the pole. It smoothes the pathway of human life, illumines the valley of the shadow of death and lights with a sunburst of glory the gate of heaven.

Can the Little Rock Conference afford to neglect this great work? Can we rest satisfied to do so little for the circulation of the Book of books?

How precious is the book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.
It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.
This lamp through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way;
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Report No. 1 (Hendrix College.)

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Your Board of Education in submitting its report to you is much gratified to say that the facts brought to us in the report of the Secretary of the General Board show an increase of interest on this subject throughout the church, and that the contributions of our people are growing larger year by year.

But while this is true the demand is also increasing everywhere, at home and abroad.

Hendrix College.

It gives us pleasure to say that this college is doing very fine work.

That last year the enrollment was 198, that this year it is already 159. That 22 of these are young men preparing for the ministry. That there is a very fine religious spirit in the student body. The management of the college is seeking to meet the growing demands by employing the strongest and best teachers for the faculty. Of course more money is needed to meet this increased expense and it must be forthcoming. The fact that 55 of the 159 pupils in this college are beneficiaries, that is to say, young men studying for the ministry, or the children of our preachers, will show what a work the college is doing for our church, and how near it ought to be to the hearts of our people and especially to every preacher's heart, and the very great necessity of giving this college our special attention. Hendrix college needs money as well as sympathy.

There is still a debt of $20,000.00; this embarrassment ought to be lifted off the institution at once, and the endowment of $40,000.00 ought to be increased to at least $100,000.00. Hendrix college will be embarrassed and hampered until this is done. Our church is not poor by any means. Let Hendrix college have our special attention so that she may go forward in her great work.

1. We recommend that T. H. Ware and W. M. Greeson be elected to succeed themselves as trustees of Hendrix College.

2. And that L. B. Leigh fill the place on the Board of Trustees caused by death of Dr. J. W. Brown.

3. That the conference give the Board of Trustees of Hendrix College the authority to change the charter of the college so as to increase the number of trustees from 18 to 21. Seven from each of the three conferences, the extra member from each conference to be nominated by the Alumni Association of the college.

Report No. 2 (Henderson College.)

According to the recommendation of your Board which was adopted by this Conference the Board of Trustees of the Arkadelphia Methodist College changed the name of the institution to that of Henderson College. The college is free of debt.

During the month of May of the present year the Board of Trustees made an arrangement with Dr. George C. Jones and Prof. J. E. Wootten, lessees of the College property, by which the Board secured the entire control of the property for the period of two years with an option for the complete purchase of the lease at a stipulated price at any time during the two years.

The Board upon taking active control and management of the school appointed a special committee of three persons known as the The Committee on Administration to take control of the work and operation of the school. This committee is composed of J. H. Hinemon, chairman, C. C. Henderson and E. H. McDaniel, the last two being respectively president and secretary of the full Board of Trustees. It is likely that this special committee has held since that time no less than 30 or 40 meetings or sessions.

They are directing the educational and financial policy of the Institution. They meet monthly to audit and review all accounts and to authorize expenditures and make appropriations.

The College property has been completely overhauled and more than $3,000.00 has been spent in repairs and improvements. The campus has been greatly improved by needed grading and by addition of three acres of land purchased about one and a half years ago.

To date 171 students have been enrolled, of whom sixty-two are in the academic department, the remainder being in the collegiate and special departments. The course of study has been revised according to the plans authorized by the General Board of Education. Only two degrees are now conferred by the College and these degrees are Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. No Institution in the State has a higher standard of requirements for these degrees than has Henderson College.

The faculty is strong and capable and is composed of men and women who were educated in some of the best training schools and colleges of the country.

The moral sentiment among the student body and the esprit de corps of the students are very fine. It is gratifying to report that there has not been a serious breach of discipline in any part of the College this year. The honor system prevails in the management of the Institution and it has worked admirably.

We take especial pleasure in reporting that since the opening in September a great revival has been carried on by the students in the College halls under the leadership of the College Christian Association. About sixty students have been reclaimed or converted and a deeply religious spirit pervades the entire student body.

The College is being conducted on thoroughly business principles, its financial condition being safe and sound.

It is the desire of the Board of Trustees to secure permanent control of the College property and with that end in view we recommend the granting to the Trustees authority to mortgage the property for a sum of money sufficient to purchase the lease and to buy additional property and make improvements necessary to meet the increasing demands of the Institution.

We further recommend the appointment of Rev. J. C. Rhodes as agent of Henderson College.

We also recommend that W. H. Ramsey be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. J. W. Brown, and that Hon. H. L. Rammel be elected to take the place of E. W. Thomas; J. A. Sage, C. V. Murray, E. H. McDaniel, J. C. Rhodes and R. B. F. Key be re-elected for another term of three years as trustees.

R. R. MOORE, Secretary.

A. TURRENTINE, President of Board.

Report No. 3 (Galloway College.)

I.

1. It gives us great pleasure to report, that at no previous time in the history of the school, was more satisfactory work done, than at the present time. The whole trend of college life is very gratifying, and is a pledge and promise of greater usefulness in the future.

2. The faculty is up to date, conscientious in the discharge of duty and full of enthusiasm, and they impart this spirit of work to their students.

3. The student body all told numbers three hundred and seven. They are representatives of the best families of this and other states. Quite a number of preachers' daughters are in the college.

4. The morale of the college was never better. The Missionary Meetings, Prayer Meetings and chapel services are interesting and profitable, and promise a great harvest of usefulness in the future.

5. Rev. D. J. Weems the financial agent has heart and hope, and is doing good work for the college, and for the cause of Christian education generally. Will you give him the right of way in your charges?

6. Quite a reduction has been made in the debt, but we still owe $12,000 or $13,000 and this must be paid before we can enter upon the enlargement and equipment we so much need.

II.

We have had before us the report of the Director of the Correspondence school, and are gratified to report that this branch of our school work is most successful. This is clearly shown in the fact that the first student enrolled was in August, 1902 and now just two years away there are 455 on roll. The work done by this school is most gratifying. We most heartily commend this school to our young preachers, and urge them to take up this work.

III.

The Little Rock Conference Training School located at Fordyce is in good condition. It has a thoroughly equipped faculty who seek to do the best work only. The school has an enrollment of 90 pupils. The people of Fordyce have subscribed $10,000.00 to build a new school building and the contract is to be let at once. The people of Fordyce deserve the highest commendation for their fidelity to this school. We most heartily commend this school to all our people.

IV.

The Stuttgart Training School is also doing most excellent work, and has a body of faithful and painstaking teachers who are putting their energies into this school. We recommend that as this school has not been received as one of the Hendrix Academies and that it is true that the property owners desire to give it to the Little Rock Conference for a Conference Training School, that we accept it, and appoint a committee of three to be composed of Ed. Hall, of Stuttgart, the Presiding Elder of the Pine Bluff District and the preacher in charge of the First Church, Pine Bluff to see after the transferring of this property to us.

The present Board of Trustees of the school are elected trustees for this Conference to hold the title to said property as a training school for the Little Rock Conference until their successors are elected by this Conference, and that the Presiding Elder of the Pine Bluff District and the preacher in charge of the Stuttgart Station to be ex-officio members of said Board.

The Board of Education recommend the appointment of R. R. Moore as Conference Secretary of Education.

A. TURRENTINE, Chairman.
R. R. MOORE, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We, the Committee on Temperance, beg to report as follows:

1. There is apparently a growing sentiment in Arkansas against the legalized saloon. The elections recently held justify us in this conclusion. It appears that had the legalized saloon been made a state, instead of a local issue, that the vote was sufficient to rid the state of this blighting curse. We rejoice however in the fact that there were many local victories for the temperance cause in the recent elections. Some new territory was added to that already redeemed from this nefarious business. But it is with regret that in a few instances we were not able to hold the advantage previously gained. Still, we are gaining ground and sooner or later the legalized saloon must go. It is rapidly disappearing from Texas, our sister state, and the dawning of a better day is in sight. What has taken place in Texas can be brought to pass in Arkansas and it is being done.

No agencies have been more potent in working these results than our church papers. The Texas Christian Advocate more than any other one factor filled that commonwealth with the information and created the spirit and genius and conscience that, working through and expressing themselves in the suffrage of a free and independent people are destined to culminate in the final and everlasting overthrow of the legalized saloon. What the Texas Christian Advocate has done for Texas, the Arkansas Methodist is doing for the State of Arkansas in large measure. People do not as a rule read the independent temperance papers that are published by other people, but they do read the church papers and it is to them that we must look for that strong and wise leadership in the temperance cause that assures success.

We submit:

2. That every pastor should be a temperance campaign leader in the truest and best sense. He knows better than the popular lecturer how to manage the intricacies growing out of a reform movement of this kind and should be kept at the helm rather than to surrender his place to some erratic street performer.

We submit:

3. That our Leagues and Sunday Schools afford great opportunity for doing valuable work in temperance reform that no pastor can afford not to take advantage of. Let every Epworth League and Sunday School be made a society to assist the church in this great work as far as practical. It is when all work that work is lightest; it is when all work that we accomplish most.

We submit:

4. Let eternal vigilance be given to the securing and rigid enforcement of wholesome temperance laws throughout our great church and land.

W. A. STEELE, Chairman.

J. L. CANNON, Secretary.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

In the Fifty-first Annual Session, Little Rock Conference M. E. Church South, the report of Publishing Committee.

To the Bishop and Brethren:

Your Committee on publication beg leave to make the following report and recommendations:

We recognize the Christian Advocate as not only the official organ of our connection but also as the leading exponent of the doctrines and policy of our beloved Methodism; and also the greatest medium of religious intelligence published in our entire connection; and as such it merits the patronage and ought to be read by all who seek to keep abreast of the current of church thought and progress; and we recommend that its patronage and circulation be advocated and encouraged.

We also call attention, to, and commend to the student of religious truth the Review edited by that recognized logician and able writer, John J. Tigert, our book editor.

We respectfully submit that this publication should be in the hands of every preacher in the Conference and of every intelligent layman as well.

As to other religious literature, published by our publishing house, we call attention especially to the Epworth Era, The Sunday School Visitor, and the entire series of the Sunday School publications, from Our Little People to The Magazine. These we regard as the indispensable aids in the training of our children in religious truth, and the developing of the missionary spirit in our young people; while adults may profit beyond human calculation by their use, also. Of course, it is not necessary to make any special recommendation as to the use of this literature in our Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues. They are indispensable.

Go Forward.

We desire to call especial attention to Go Forward. This is a publication devoted specially to the work of missions, both foreign and domestic; and furnishes the best, and in fact the only practical means of placing before our people, once a month, a full and complete compendium of information as to the work, and necessity for work on all missionary lines, and in all mission fields. It should be taken and read by every Methodist family in the connection;

First, because of the matter it contains; and second, because its price, 35 cents per annum, places it within the reach of everybody.

Arkansas Methodist.

Having looked into the work and management of the Arkansas Methodist, we heartily endorse the same as our Conference organ; and we recommend the endorsement of Rev. J. A. Anderson as editor, and the appointment of Rev. A. C. Millar, as co-editor and business manager of the same.

We desire to express our appreciation of the long and faithful service of the retiring editor, J. E. Godbey, and business manager, George Thornburgh, and wish for them peace and prosperity in their new fields and relations to the church and Kingdom of God; and we greet our new editor and business manager with best wishes and pledges of co-operation, in their important work to be done among us. We also call attention to the book department of the Arkansas Methodist and advise our people to patronize the same.

Very respectfully submitted,
 HORACE JEWELL, Chm.,
 A. CURL, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

The interest of the claimants on our "Conference Claimants Fund" is growing within our Conference. The collections are growing, the endowment fund represented by Dr. Watkins is growing and the interest committed to this Board is steadily increasing. We have turned over to the Joint Board of Finance the sum of $68.50 as per the receipt of the Treasurer hereto attached.

Our assets consist of:

The Lou A. Davis Fund of.....	$1,000 00
Interest accumulated and loaned.....	150 00
Other Loans.....	850 00

$2,000 00

Through the efforts of Rev. W. W. Nelson Mr. R. Spann has endeavored to give us at his death real estate valued at a conservative estimate at $3,000.00. The papers are in the hands of Judge Mehaffey whom the Board instructed to perfect the titles.

We have some other prospects on which we hope soon to realize.

We again appeal to our laymen to consider the needs of these old preachers, who are worn out from service, without a competency and should by every token of appreciation have the meager stipend allowed them, augmented from this fund. No factor has contributed more to our rapid progress in commercial, agricultural, industrial, educational and spiritual lines than the Methodist itinerant preacher. Frequently our preachers die and leave widows and children whom we must assist, and our present small income makes the allowance small.

We appeal to the active members of the Little Rock Conference to call the attention of laymen to the interest of this Board and thereby help us to swell the assets of the Board of Trustees.

We have re-elected Rev. J. E. Godbey President, James Thomas Secretary and T. M. Mehaffey, Treasurer.

We hereto attach the Constitution and make it a part of this report and request that it be published in our minutes.

J. E. GODBEY, President.

JAMES THOMAS, Secretary

Constitution.

We, J. E. Godbey, R. W. McKay, T. D. Scott, James Thomas, T. M. Mehaffey, J. R. Harvey and B. J. Brown and our successors, desire to form a corporation, and for that purpose do adopt the following constitution:

First. The name of said corporation shall be, The Board of Trustees of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Second. The object of said corporation shall be to receive, hold and administer all moneys, funds and property, real and personal, that may from time to time come into its hands by donation, gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, for any of the uses, purposes and needs of the Little Rock Conference, particularly funds and property for the use and benefit of superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers of said Conference.

Third. Said Board is authorized to place at interest any and all funds that may come into its hands for the use and benefit of said Conference, and shall make a full and complete report of its acts and doings in that behalf to the annual meeting of said Little Rock Conference for approval, showing disposition of the interests and funds received, provided always, the Board shall carry out the wishes of the donors of said funds or property.

Fourth. That the vacancies in said Board shall be filled by the said Little Rock Conference, but in the interim such vacancies may be filled by the remainder of said Board and the persons so appointed shall hold until the next meeting of said Conference.

Fifth. That the regular meeting of said Board shall be on the first day of the annual sessions of said Conference, and at the same place as the Conference is held. The first meeting shall be on the fifth day of March, 1899, at the city of Little Rock. Provided also: The President of the Board may call a meeting of the Board whenever deemed necessary.

Sixth. That the officers of said Board shall consist of a President, Secretary and Treasurer; who shall be elected every two years, provided those elected at the first meeting shall hold only until the regular annual meetings.

Seventh. Four members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Received from T. M. Mehaffey, Treasurer of Board of Trustees, $68.50, Sixty-two and 50-100 dollars.

IN MEMORIAM.

REV. JAMES M. HAWLEY

Rev. James M. Hawley was born January 4, 1867, in Pulaski County, Arkansas. His father, Rev. L. B. Hawley has been for many years a member of the Little Rock Conference. As ought to be the case with every son of a Methodist preacher, he was religious from childhood, and in tender age became a member of the church. He attended Central Collegiate Institute at Atalus, Arkansas, from which he received the A. B. Degree in 1887, being then in his twenty-first year.

He had been already licensed to preach and when the Arkansas Conference met the same year he was admitted on trial and was appointed to Booneville Circuit, which he served two years and in 1889 he was received into full connection, ordained deacon and received a location that he might attend Vanderbilt University. He remained in the University four years, graduating in the Theological department and taking the A. M. Degree in the Academic. He was immediately appointed to Batesville station to fill out a term made vacant in the midst of the year.

When Conference convened in 1893 he was readmitted, ordained elder, and reappointed to Batesville. In June 1894 he was called to the chair of English in the Hendrix College, reluctantly abandoning a lucrative pastorate to accept a professor's chair with scantiest prospect of support because his brethren persuaded him that this was his duty. He immediately transferred to the Little Rock Conference which he had all along regarded as home. In 1898 his desire to return to pastoral work prevailed. He resigned his professorship and was appointed Presiding Elder on the Hot Springs District. This District was disorganized in 1899, and Brother Hawley was stationed at Lakeside Church in Pine Bluff, serving there two years.

In 1901 he was stationed at First Church, Pine Bluff, continuing his work there until the Master called him home. He passed away, May 24, 1904, aged 37 years, 4 months and 20 days, in the nineteenth year of his ministry. Rev. A. C. Miller whose appreciation is justified by many years of close fellowship, writes thus:

"Having a poetic temperament and gifts exquisitely sensitive and discriminating literary taste, rare descriptive powers, and genius in phrasing and verbal collocation, he was the author of a few sweet and graceful verses, a striking and highly interesting newspaper correspondent, a charming essayist, a soulful reader, an entertaining lecturer and a chaste and thoughtful preacher. His sermons altho' vigorous and virile were often unconsciously to himself, prose poems.

"Without being a slave to literature, he used it with consummate ease and effectiveness in sermonic illustration. As a teacher he despised mere routine and the purely technical but fairly reveled in the realm of the beautiful, the ideal and the spiritual. His students might shirk the drudgery of preparing but they left the classroom with the music of inspiration vibrating in their souls.

"Manly in thought and deed he was, and would have remained to three score and ten, a youth in spirit. With warm hand grasp and informal greeting he, though a teacher and pastor, was a boy among boys. Lacking somewhat in facial expression and vocal fullness, he was not a pulpit orator, but his sermons were thoughtful, clear, concise, pointed, spiritual, and earnestly delivered. As a pastor he was sympathetic, tactful, helpful, hopeful. His Christian experience was genuine, his faith in God unwavering, his devotion to Christ intense, his love of fellow man, abounding.

"To this appreciation I add but this; he was sincere and loyal, an Israelite in whom was no guile. I have been thinking how much he must enjoy association with the angels.

"The churches he served as pastor, the Little Rock Conference, of which he was Secretary when he died, the Alumni of Hendrix College, his wife, his father, all alike sorely bereaved, join in common mourning for the purest soul among us."

J. H. RIGGIN.

REV. JAMES Y. CHRISTMAS

James Y. Christmas was born in Ashley County, Arkansas. Orphaned in childhood, he was brought up by his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Bond, a devout Methodist matron and trained in faith and virtue from his infancy. He was brought into the Church in his early boyhood.

Living in the country, and just after the war his opportunity for education was very slender. However plodding industriously thro' the years, he made himself a good English scholar and furnished his mind well, from general reading. He was licensed to preach in 1881, and admitted on trial in the Little Rock Annual Conference in 1883, and appointed to Collins Mission. His receipts that year were $130.70 with an additional appropriation of $50.00 from the Mission Board. This was his monetary encouragement to persevere. In 1894 he was sent to Bartholemew Circuit in 1885 to Social Hill, in 1886 to Sheridan Circuit, and returned in 1887, in 1888 to Stuttgart Circuit, in 1889 to Arkansas Post, in 1893 to New Liberty and returned in 1894, in 1895 to Dallas Circuit, in 1896 to Mena Station in 1897 and 1898 to Hampton, in 1899 and 1900 to Swan Lake, in 1901 to Stephens and Waldo.

Here his health, precarious for years, utterly broke down and in 1902 he was appointed to Park Avenue, in Hot Springs, in the hope that the thermal waters and mountain air would bring improvement, but consumption set in and he was unable to do the work. In 1903 he was placed on the superannuated list and lingering until September 11, 1904, he passed away, in the twenty-first year of his ministry.

He was a capital preacher, presenting the living truth of the gospel in a way that commanded to attention of the thoughtful, instructive, spiritual, eloquent and fruitful. He was a devoutly religious man and impressed his people with the spotlessness of his character. While on Stuttgart Circuit the new railroad town begun to grow. He organized the church, built a house of worship, and superintended the inception of the Stuttgart Station. While on Dallas Circuit the railroad was built thro' the mountains and the town of Mena sprang up. Here he organized and built, and Mena Station took its place in the Conference. His widow and three children survive. May the conference give them their support and their prayers.

J. H. RIGGIN.

REV. JACOB D. WHITESIDE

Jacob D. Whiteside was born in Hempstead County, Arkansas, January 20, 1847. He grew up in a religious home with the advantage of Christian training, but with very limited opportunity for an education. In after life, by application, he gained good knowledge of the ordinary branches of an education and was well versed in the Bible and in the doctrines and institutions of Methodism.

He was licensed to preach and admitted on trial in the Little Rock Conference in 1874, by some oversight his appointment does not appear in the minutes. In 1875 his appointment was Dallas circuit, in 1876 Mt. Ida, in 1877 Dallas, in 1878 Little River, and again in 1879, in 1880 Moro, in 1881 Little River, in 1882 Cave Mission, in 1883 and 1884 Atlanta, in 1885 and 1886 Lacey, in 1887 Chapel Hill, in 1888 and 1889 Emmett, in 1890 Lehi Circuit, in 1891 and 1892 Toledo, in 1893 and 1894 Genoa, in 1895 Cove, in 1896 Cove and Dallas, in 1897 Center Point, in 1898 and 1899 Amity in 1900 Clark, in 1901, 1902 1903 Social Hill. Here ended his itinerant work of thirty years. He fell asleep in Jesus November 7, 1904.

Brother Whiteside had an impediment in his speech. To avoid stammering he spoke slowly, not attempting to utter a word until he knew he could. This enforced hesitancy in speech easily impressed the hearer with the opinion that he hesitated because he did not know what to say. As a result he was never a popular preacher with people of itching ears. But the attentive hearers soon found that when he opened his mouth he said something, and something worth hearing.

He had a clear understanding, a better knowledge of Christian truth and of important affairs than ordinary men.

Everywhere he was much beloved for his sterling qualities of mind and heart. A devoted Christian he was, and a consecrated minister of the gospel, unselfish, modest, faithful, knowing how to endure hardship for the gospel and doing it uncomplainingly and even joyfully. No man of more spotless purity belonged to our body. He served hard unremunerative circuits all of his life.

I am glad there is a heaven for such as he, with palms of victory and crowns of glory.

REV. A. WHITE

Bennett Allen White, son of Capt. William Rufus and Julia White, was born in Gibson County, Tennessee, December 15, 1850. Until the early part of 1861, his life was spent with his parents upon a farm. At the death of his mother and the call to arms of his father, he was left with his grandmother whose words of timely advice, together with his parental training had a marked effect upon his whole subsequent life. At the close of the civil war he with his father and brother, entered upon the duties of farm life, and heroically struggled to build up their lost fortune.

His educational advantages were meager, limited to small country schools, during leisure seasons from the farm. After reaching mature years he spent two years at school and in teaching. In 1872 he came to Arkansas and settled in Hempstead county. Here he engaged in farming and teaching. In 1880 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Bryant. To this marriage were born six children; five girls and one boy. He was licensed to preach at Pump Springs Camp ground, CenterPoint Circuit by Rev. J. R. Harvey, P. E. in 1882, and in 1889 was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference. He traveled consecutively until his death. His wife died November 30, 1897, and on December 4, 1902, he was married to Miss Sara Palmer. His death occurred July 4, 1904 at Spring Hill in the midst of his labors.

Bro. White was a sweet spirited, lovable Christian gentleman. He met life's duties calmly and discharged them faithfully. He was always a gentleman. He never grew sour, never showed a bad spirit. But with a fixed purpose, steady aim, unfaltering courage and sweet spirit he entered upon the work assigned him. He never exhibited a spirit of selfishness, envy or jealousy. He did not regard himself a pet of the Bishop and cabinet, nor did he feel that he was underated or neglected. They had done their work in the fear of God and he accepted his appointment as from the Lord.

If there was a weakness in his composition, it was found in his great modesty. He seemed to distrust himself. He was a good gospel preacher. His sermons were not brilliant displays of intellectual vigor, but designed to reach the heart. They were appeals to the spiritual nature.

No one ever had occasion to question his motives or distrust his sincerity. There was never a taint nor stain upon his character. His fidelity to Christ and the Church was simply beautiful and worthy of emulation.

He reared a large family in the itinerary on poor circuits and small salary, but so managed his finances as to keep out of debt.

He died in the midst of his work, deeply imbedded in the affections of his people. His memory will be cherished by his brethren of the Conference. May his mantle fall upon his only son.

ROSA ALLEN

Rosa Allen, daughter of John Howard and Frances Reed was born February 27, 1877.

She professed religion and joined the M. E. Church, South, under the ministry of Rev. Jethro W. White in 1894, was married to Rev. David Bowls April 22, 1903 and died July 29, 1904.

She was a sweet spirited, lovable character, striving to do her duty faithfully as the wife of an itinerant preacher. Her husband says of her: "I never knew a better girl. Hers was a most triumphant death. She was with us at the last session of our Conference looking healthy and vigorous, but in the midst of the year she was taken home to heaven leaving a sorrowing husband to mourn his great loss.
